

Butterfly
Conservation
Scotland

Saving butterflies, moths and our environment

IAIN H. LEACH

Have you seen an Orange-tip?

Please tell us where you have seen Orange-tips.

The last Scottish survey was in 2007/2008 and we would like to see if they have continued to spread. Submit your records online at www.butterfly-conservation.org/scottishorangetip or fill in and send this postcard.

Date	Number seen	Place seen/nearest town or village	Grid ref or postcode (if known)

Name _____

Address _____

Postcode _____

Email _____

The information you provide will be used by Butterfly Conservation and Biological Records Centres only. If you do not want to receive relevant information about our work in future please tick the box.

Butterfly Conservation Scotland
Balallan House
24 Allan Park
Stirling
FK8 2QG

Butterfly Conservation is a charity registered in England and Wales (254937) and in Scotland (SC039268)